

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

- Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

Pronunciation Spot: What happened to John's relative, Frank?

Learning Outcome

Identify and provide solutions to problems in a range of social contexts.

Ask your partner:

- Do you enjoy being on the water?
- Do you prefer to be in the open ocean or near the shore?

Can Do Statements

- I can say and use the sound fr.
- I can say what people have to do or are going to do in the future.
- I can stress new information.

Let's Explore!

John's cousin and his friend were on the open ocean. What happened to them?

* "Open ocean" means being a long distance away from the shore.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Sally: Hey, Peter. Did you hear about John's relative?

Peter: No, did something happen?

Sally: He called me a couple days ago. His cousin, Frank, was in a boating accident last summer.

Peter: Really? What happened?

Sally: Supposedly, he was fishing with his friend about 15 miles off Boston Harbor.

Peter: Oh, the weather's been terrible lately. I hope he didn't get caught in that storm.

Sally: Their engine died, and his boat capsized ... and then suddenly there was a freak wave.

Peter: Oh gosh! How horrible for them.

Sally: Yeah ... they had to spend the night clinging to the boat and waiting to be rescued. The water was freezing.

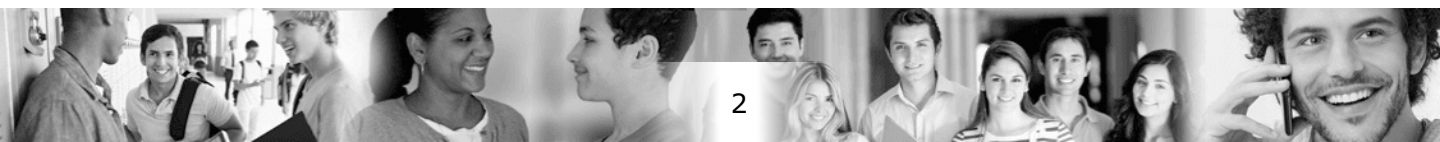

Peter: How were they found?

Sally: The Coast Guard spotted them with their helicopter. They were very lucky indeed.

Peter: They're going to have to be more careful. They have to take some flares and a cell phone.

Sally: Absolutely! They are going to have to tell people where they are going to fish next time as well. No one knew where they were.

Peter: That's for sure! What a frightening experience!

Let's Practice!

What did you hear? Let's practice using reduced forms.

Instructions: Read the sentences. Use the words from the box to correctly complete the sentences. Then read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with an instructor.

Word bank

have to / have to tell / had to spend / going to fish / have to be

1. They _____ the night clinging to the boat and waiting to be rescued.
2. They are going to _____ more careful when they sail.
3. They are going to _____ people about the accident.
4. They are _____ in the river next time as well.

Let's Practice!

Time to practice stressing key words in a sentence.

Instructions: Proofread the sentence. Cross out the incorrect word. Then rewrite the sentence correctly.

1. That's for sure! What a frightening experience!

2. Their engine died, and his boat capsised.

3. They have to take some flairs and a cell phone.

4. The Coast Guard spotted them with their helicopter.

5. They had to spend the night cligin to the boat and waiting to be rescued.

Extension Activity

Write a dialogue about an event in your family.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Write a 10 to 12 line dialogue about a family member. What happened?
- Describe the positive or negative event.
- Use 4 words with the consonant blend fr.
- Read the dialogue aloud to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes No

I write a 10 to 12 line dialogue about a family member.

☐ ☐

I use the consonant blend fr in sentences.

☐ ☐

I read the dialogue to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to capsize (verb): to turn over; to turn so that the bottom is on top e.g. The engine died, and his boat capsized.
- freak (adjective): not natural, normal, or likely e.g. Then suddenly, there was a freak wave.
- to cling (verb): to hold onto something or someone very tightly e.g. They had to spend the night clinging to the boat.
- flare (noun): a very bright light that is used to give a signal, to light up something, or to attract attention e.g. They have to take some flares and a cell phone.
- Coast Guard (noun): an organization that has the job of guarding the area along a country's coast
e.g. The Coast Guard spotted them with their helicopter.

Learning Points

The R Sound with Other Consonants - the fr Sound

Consonant blends are a collection of two or three different consonant sounds that are each heard when the word is pronounced.

For example, in the word price, you can hear both the letters p and r. It makes a consonant blend.

Here are some examples of consonant blends with the pr sound:

Examples: fries, freak, frozen, Friday

Examples:

- I am going to the movies on Friday.
- There was a freak wave.

Reduced Forms

You used reduced form in speaking, not in writing.

Formal	Reduced Form
ought to	oughta
want to	wanna
have to	hafta
got to	gotta
going to	gonna
going to	goin'ta

Examples:

- You're gonna have to call the Coast Guard.

